Failure to comply with one or more provisions of these regulations may result in being flagged and having accreditation canceled during the current edition and the following edition of FIL Guadalajara.

1) The purpose of press accreditation is to facilitate journalistic coverage and the dissemination of activities and events within the FIL Guadalajara general program. Any other use may be subject to sanctions.

2) All the instructions of the FIL Organizing Committee, as well as staff and security personnel inside the fairgrounds, must be followed, both in the exhibition area and in the halls.

3) Under no circumstances may the press accreditation credential be loaned or shared. The credential is personal and non-transferable.

4) Exclusive access to the Press Room is through the DESFILIA entrance.

5) Press accreditation does NOT grant access to events that require an invitation, pre-registration, or any registration process established by publishers, institutions, or other organizers.

6) In case of loss of the press credential, it will NOT be replaced or reissued.

7) The Press Room cubicles are intended exclusively for the temporary work of accredited journalists. They may not be reserved or used to store belongings.

8) FIL Guadalajara is not responsible for lost belongings or personal items left unattended in the cubicles or anywhere else in the Press Room.

9) Access to the Professionals Area is intended solely to facilitate the work and networking of participants in the Professional Program. Use of the space for other purposes may result in the accredited person being asked to leave the area.

10) Use of the interview rooms is subject to availability. Accredited individuals may request spaces by emailing josue.nando@fil.com.mx.

11) Press accreditation will be canceled for anyone who misuses the facilities or badge, litters, violates these regulations, or engages in any form of violence, harassment, or bullying toward others.
